

Kenora Public Library Board

POLICY

SECTION: Operating	NO: OP-10
TITLE: Community Information	DATE: March 27, 2024
	Next Review Date: March 2028

The Kenora Public Library makes available information on community activities, agencies, and organizations in order to facilitate access to resources within the community and as a partner in promoting community services and events. The library encourages the display of bulletins, brochures, and posters regarding events in order that residents can fully participate in community activities. This policy sets out the types of information suitable for collecting, displaying, and distributing in the library.

Community Information Collection and Services

The library will collect and keep current information on the services of community agencies and organizations. This will include up-to-date information on:

- municipal services
- community groups
- educational organizations
- health and social services agencies and
- religious, recreation and cultural institutions

The library will provide easy, convenient, and confidential access to information on agencies and organizations.

The library staff will be knowledgeable about community agencies and organizations and capable of referring people appropriately and in a sensitive manner. Library staff will also refer individuals to the Ontario 211: Community and Social Service Help Line (www.Ontario211.ca) when appropriate.

Patron confidentiality will always be respected, except in cases where requirements of the law intervene.

Community Information Displays in the Library

The library will make available space to display materials about community activities and events.

The display of material does not constitute an endorsement of any group, activity, or event by the library.

The library staff will place, post, and remove all materials on the bulletin boards and in the brochure racks.

Materials will be accepted on a space available basis using the following priorities:

- notices of library programs, events, activities, and services.
- notices of community interest from the local municipality and agencies.
- notices of cultural, educational, and recreational events.

All materials become the property of the Kenora Public Library Board and the library will dispose of materials as it sees fit.

The library will not display or distribute:

- materials that contravene the Ontario Human Rights Code, federal or provincial laws and regulations.
- faith-based materials whose primary purpose is the promotion of faith, however events sponsored by local religious groups may be displayed.
- materials advertising and promoting commercial products or services.
- personal ads and notices including notices of items for sale or rent.
- multiple copies of the same posting on the bulletin board.

Any complaints or appeals will be resolved by the CEO.

Election Campaign Material

Material whose primary focus is partisan or political in nature cannot be displayed or distributed in the library with the following exceptions:

- political materials may be eligible when it announces meetings and forums for discussion of community issues.
- during an election the library will provide an area where all candidates may make available up to 25 copies of their campaign brochure.

Related Documents

Kenora Public Library OP-02-23 Library and Political Elections

History
Approval Date:	March 27, 2024	Approved by:	Marj Poirier
Amendment Date:		Approved by:
Amendment Date:		Approved by:
Amendment Date:		Approved by:
Amendment Date:		Approved by:	